Christopher Kurz Wins AmeriLife's 2009 Rookie of the Year Award

The AmeriLife Group, L.L.C., the nation's largest annuity, life and health organization on the senior market today, has awarded Christopher Kurz Rookie of the Year for 2009.

Believing in his daily mantra of "leaving no stone unturned," Kurz, from AmeriLife's East Pasco office has won Double Qualifier and Triple Qualifier awards in past years and has continued to turn up another award for 2009.

Originally from St. Louis Missouri, Kurz's career experience included being a licensed life and health agent before moving to Florida and joining the AmeriLife Group at the East Pasco office in September of 2008. In January of 2009, he became Branch Leader at the East Pasco office. When asked about his formula for success, Kurz attributes AmeriLife's expanded line of annuities and larger life policies making all the difference for his financial success. "It has taken my income productivity to the next level," replies Kurz, "I am committed to following the traditional AmeriLife way and always pay attention to the details."

Kurz holds community seminars to help educate seniors at least once a week. Seminar topics include asset protection for long term care, rising nursing home costs and keeping up-to-date with today's Medicare coverage.

AmeriLife Life and Health Services of East Pasco, L.L.C. is located at 4747 Allen Road, Zephyrhills, Florida. For more information contact Christopher Kurz at (813) 788-5558.
